

Introductory Intensive French Course 2014 for specialists

Who can apply?

Erasmus students at the Faculty of Translation and Interpretation (FTI-EII).

When?

From 1st to 11th September 2014:

40 hours of language classes + 10 hours of cultural activities open to all Erasmus students

Where?

At the Centre for Modern Languages (Centre de langues vivantes – CLV), Classroom 2

Site Epargne:

56, rue de l'épargne

http://portail.umons.ac.be/FR/universite/admin/cerp/PublishingImages/Plans/Campus_FPMS.jpg
(Building n°3)

Price: The course is free for UMONS Erasmus students.

Prerequisites:

Students need to be able to use their previously acquired knowledge of the French language to: communicate in everyday situations; speak coherently about informal subjects; describe an event; give an opinion.

Course Objectives:

- To emphasise and improve Erasmus students' French language skills in order for them to settle in comfortably at the FTI-EII
- To prepare students for the various activities approached in the French and Translation courses at the FTI-EII (note taking, reformulating texts, summarising texts, writing argumentative texts, etc.)
- To improve oral expression by widening the range of vocabulary

Course Content:

- All 4 language skills will be covered, i.e. listening, reading, speaking and writing
- Exercises covering various grammatical aspects, such as moods, tenses, connectors, relative pronouns, prepositions, etc.
- Vocabulary enhancing exercises
- A variety of exercises aimed at improving language in use

Teaching Methods:

- Using the language in context by use of authentic documents

Certification:

Students enrolled on this course are required to attend all the lessons.

A certificate of attendance will be issued to students on completion of the course.

Contact: wivine.dreze@umons.ac.be clv@umons.ac.be

www.umons.ac.be/CLV

UMONS

in partnership with the Faculty of Translation and Interpretation and the International Office

Introductory Intensive French Course 2014 for non-specialists

Who can apply?

Erasmus students and foreign researchers at the University of Mons who are complete beginners in French or who already have a basic knowledge of the language (level A1)

When?

From 1st to 11th September 2014
40 hours of language classes + 10 hours of cultural activities open to all Erasmus students

Where?

At the Centre for Modern Languages (Centre de Langues Vivantes- CLV), Classroom 4
Site épargne
56 rue de l'épargne
http://portail.umons.ac.be/FR/universite/admin/cerp/PublishingImages/Plans/Campus_FPMS.jpg
(Building n°3)

Price: The course is free for UMONS Erasmus students and members

Course Objectives:

- To interact in a simple way with others in everyday situations
- To use simple short text items
- To discover Belgian culture and university life (through quizzes, videos, games and trips).

Course Content:

All 4 language skills will be covered, i.e. listening, reading, speaking and writing in the following topics:

- Introducing yourself, getting to know people
- My town
- Accommodation
- Travelling
- Eating
- Arranging to go out

Course Material:

Authentic documents, songs, ICT ...

Reference Material:

Collectif Eurocentre (2001), Exercices d'Oral en contexte-débutant, Hachette FLE, Denyer M. et al. (2009), Version originale 1, Difusión, Barcelone, Grégoire M. (1995), Grammaire progressive du français-niveau intermédiaire, Clé international, Paris
Labascoule J. et al. (2004), Rond-point 1 niveaux A1-A2, Difusión, Barcelone, Skirka V. et Varlik M. (2010), Bagages, aftam, Paris

Certification:

Students enrolled on this course are required to attend all the lessons.

A certificate of attendance will be issued to students on completion of the course.

Contact: Laurence.Chainaye@umons.ac.be

French Course (FLE)

French as a Foreign Language for UMONS students and staff

Who can apply?

Students who are enrolled at the University of Mons, as well as staff members employed by the University of Mons, can attend free French classes for one or two semesters.

E.C.T.S. credits

The course has been allotted 5 ECTS credits (per semester) and is part of the course programme for Erasmus students.

What does the course entail?

Classes run twice a week (2x2 hours) in a relaxed and friendly atmosphere, catering for cultural and linguistic exchange.

Emphasis is put on both oral and written communication to support students in everyday life as well as in an academic context.

This course will also allow students to discover the cultural richness of Belgium (particularly Mons) through documentaries, visits to exhibitions, etc.

If you wish to enrol on this French course, please contact Véronique Adam at:
Veronique.Adam@umons.ac.be

When?

French classes will start on 29th September 2014

Where ?

Centre for Modern Languages (CLV), UMONS
Site de l'épargne: 56 rue de l'Épargne, building on the left, 2nd floor